

By accepting a team placement with PCYB, parents agree to abide to the following Codes of Conduct for the 2014-2015 Season:

PARENTS' CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Parents serve as role models for their children; become aware of this and work to be a positive role model. Applaud good plays by your child's team as well as the opposing team.
2. Parents should refrain from coaching or refereeing from the sidelines.
3. Parents will not embarrass their child by yelling at players, coaches or officials. By showing positive attitude toward the game and all of its participants, your child will benefit.
4. Parents will emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit your athlete. De-emphasize games in the lower age groups.
5. Parents should support the efforts of the volunteer coaches and the league.
6. Parents will never use profanity, drugs or tobacco during any game or training session.
7. Parents will always show good sportsmanship and set up an example for their child.
8. Parents will ask their child to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
9. Parents will place the emotional and physical well-being of their child ahead of their personal desire to win.
10. Parents will never strike, shove, threaten to strike or lay a hand upon an official, player, spectator or coach.

By accepting a team placement with PCYB, players agree to abide to the following Codes of Conduct for 2014-2015 Season:

PLAYERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Players will play by the rules of the game.
2. Players will control their temper; most of all resist the temptation to retaliate when you feel you have been wronged.
3. Players will be good sports by cheering all good plays, whether it's your team or opponent's.
4. Players will treat all players as they would like to be treated.
5. Players will cooperate with coaches, teammates, opponents and referees.
6. Players will remember that basketball is a team game and encourage teammates as every player makes mistakes and has off days.
7. Players will never abuse anyone or swear in frustration on or off the court.
8. Players will never use unnecessary rough tactics during the course of a game.
9. Players will never appear in the contest area under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
10. Players must always abide by the official's decision.
11. Players must not engage in illegal activities while participating in PCYB activities.
